

Senate Democratic Policy Committee Hearing

“Contracting Abuses in Iraq: Is the Bush Administration Safeguarding American Taxpayer Dollars?”

Witness Biographies

Frank Cassaday

Former Employee, KBR

Frank Cassaday worked for KBR as an ice plant operator in 2004 and 2005. His work in Fallujah, Iraq coincided with the invasion of Fallujah by the United States Marines in November 2004. Prior to his service in Iraq, Mr. Cassaday worked in refrigeration, air conditioning, and diesel generator maintenance.

Linda Warren

Former Employee, KBR

Linda Warren worked at KBR as a Laundry Foreman and as a Morale, Welfare and Recreation (MWR) technician in 2004. Before her work in Iraq, Ms. Warren was a career employee with the United States Postal Service. She is a Marine Corps veteran and the mother of four sons, all of whom have served or are serving in the military. Ms. Warren is currently working in sales in Texas.

Barry Halley

Former Employee, WWNS and CAPE Environmental

Barry Halley worked for Worldwide Network Services (WWNS) as a Project Manager under a DynCorp subcontract in 2004. In this capacity, he worked on communications projects and on business development. Mr. Halley also worked for CAPE Environmental Management as the Operations and Security Manager for Iraq operations. Previously, he worked in the telecommunications industry. Mr. Halley is a Marine Corps veteran and his son currently serves in the Air Force.